

The New York Times

Museum and Gallery Listings for Feb. 24–March 1

Published: February 23, 2012

Art & Design

Weegee: 'Naked City' / Vivian Maier (closes on Saturday) Two careers in street photography — markedly different in sensibility and visibility — are contrasted in side-by-side shows. The raw, exuberant tabloid art of the famous Weegee (1899–1968) is manifest in a display of 125 images from throughout his career. Meanwhile, the secretive, recently discovered photographer Vivian Maier (1926–2009) took pictures ceaselessly, pursuing a style as unobtrusive as Weegee's is loud and in your face, but no less assured. Steven Kasher Gallery, 521 West 23rd Street, Chelsea, (212) 966-3978, stevenkasher.com. (Smith)