

EDITORS' PICKS: 11 THINGS NOT TO MISS IN NEW YORK'S ART
WORLD THIS WEEK

By Sarah Cascone, July 31, 2018

9. "Sandra Weiner: New York Kids 1940–49" at Steven Kasher Gallery

Sandra Weiner's socially minded street photography turns the camera on the poor children of New York City, capturing their joy and resiliency in the face of hardship. Many of her vintage black-and-white prints are being exhibited for the first time. Especially moving are a series of images following a boy named Mickey who lived in a tenement on East 26th Street.

Location: Steven Kasher Gallery, 515 West 26th Street, Second Floor

Price: Free

Time: Monday–Thursday, 10 a.m.–6 p.m.
